Week four of term 3 and the Prep students have already enjoyed so many different activities. The preps really enjoyed the soccer session run by some of the coaches from Tottenham. With the Olympics starting in the next few days, the Preps are starting to learn about the different sports involved.