No: 32 26th October 2018

Dear Students, Parents and Friends,

On Thursday we celebrated “Italian Day” with Signora Nanos planning a very full day of excellent activities. I was very impressed with how well students and staff embraced the Italian theme and put so much effort into outfits. We started the day in the Hall with a presentation from each grade showing their language and acting skills followed by a parade in the Hall. We enjoyed soccer and outside games followed by an excellent Incursion comedy performance. After enjoying una bella Italian themed lunch the whole school participated in a creative experience: firstly, watching a video on Michelangelo about the painting of the ceiling in the Sistine chapel followed by students drawing their own artworks while lying on their backs with paper stuck underneath their desks. Così divertente! We finished the day with another Incursion - a one-man music show in the Hall where students participated with instruments and movements. Che meraviglia! Thank you Signora Nanos, students and staff for an excellent Italian Day.

Phillip Island Camp has finally arrived and everything looks set for an excellent time. On Thursday we had our last camp meeting to discuss cabins and final reminders of what is needed for the activities etc. I'm sure students will have a wonderful time with Canoeing, Archery, Swim Spa and Giant Swing. I'd like to thank (in advance) the staff, particularly Ms Noack but also Ms Kelly, Ms Wright, Mr Skoullos and Ms Richardson, who have put together an excellent schedule of activities and put a lot of thought into making sure everybody has a safe and fun time. I'm looking forward to updates throughout the Camp and seeing students returning happy, safe and sound.

Our DVD from last term's amazing production of “A Night at the Museum” has arrived at school and will be sent home with students today to families who have ordered them – happy viewing!

Let's not forget that Monday November 5th (day before Cup Day) is a student free day with teachers working on planning and reports.

I hope you all have a lovely weekend.
